

Short paper Preparation Guidelines for the SMSI Conference 2027

First Author<sup>2</sup>, Presenting author<sup>2</sup> and Third author<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Institution or company, address and country

<sup>2</sup> Institution or company, address and country
Corresponding Author's e-mail address

Summary: Please describe briefly the highlights of your work. The summary of max. 6 lines should be typed across both columns. Please do not leave any spaces between the short paper and the title of your first section and please do not use symbols in the summary. (style SMSI Conference Bodytext).

Keywords: List five descriptive words, separated by a comma (e.g. printing, type style, titles, illustrations, references). These will be included in the index of keywords in the electronic conference volume. (style SMSI Conference Keywords)

Title

In the main title, please use initial capital letters; do not capitalize articles (like "the"), coordinate conjunctions ("and"), and prepositions ("of", "in") under four letters in length.

Headlines

Do not capitalize articles, coordinate conjunctions, and prepositions under four letters in length. Do not use blank lines (carriage return) to make more space between paragraphs.

Background, Motivation and Objective

To introduce your topic please give a short background motivation and refer to selected relevant literature. Take care that your contribution is in line with the suggested topic on top of the page. Choose an adequate title that reveals the aim of your work. Experimental details should be shown only as distinctive features to describe important information. Literature references are given in brackets [1].

Description of the New Method or System

Write here your specific qualitative and/or quantitative novelty claim(s): what you have achieved for the first time, and/or how your work advances the state of research in the field.

Results

Only original scientific results and significant findings and developments in the specific field should be presented. Please arrange figures in a way that important information can be caught at a glance. Sometimes, a picture says a thousand words.

Illustrations, Graphs, and Photographs

Please arrange figures in a way that important information can be caught at a glance. Illustrations, graphs, and photographs should fit preferably in one column (see Fig. 1). The resolution for photographs and graphics should not exceed 300 dpi.

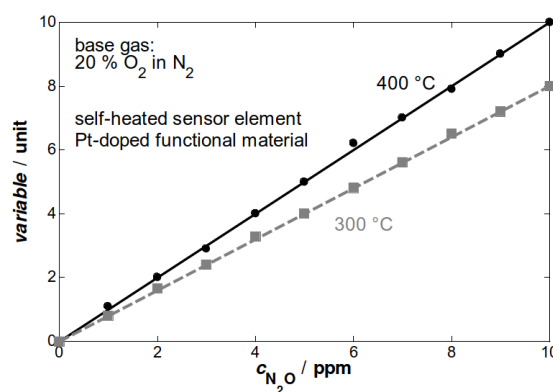

Fig. 1: Graph of variable vs analyte concentration (style "SMSI Conferences Caption") for two different temperatures.

Equations

Equations should appear in the format "SMSI Conferences Equation" in a separate line. Please refer your equations in the text as eq. (1).

$$R = \frac{U}{l} \quad (1)$$

Captions

The caption is placed above a table and below a figure, picture, or graphic distinctive features to describe important information. For the tables, please use style "SMSI Conferences Table"

References

List and number all bibliographical references at the end of the paper. When referenced within the text, enclose the citation number in square brackets, i.e. [1, 2]

Tab. 1: Table caption

| $T/^{\circ}\text{C}$ | Sensitivity of variable towards N <sub>2</sub> O | Coefficient of determination R <sup>2</sup> |
|----------------------|--------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| 300                  | 0.8                                              | 0.9998                                      |
| 400                  | 1                                                | 0.9994                                      |

References

- [1] References (style "SMSI Conferences RefText"): please use the style shown for Ref. [2] and provide the DOI of the articles
- [2] M. Mouse, D. Duck, The Beagle Boys for President, Journal of Applied Nonsense 13, 123-134 (2011); doi: 10.1234/s10000

Format of your Paper

The A4 size format is to be used for your short paper. All printed material, including text, illustrations, and charts, must be kept within the parameters of the two-column format. Each column should be 75 mm wide with a 10 mm space between. Left, right and bottom margins should be 25 mm each. The title page will have a 30mm top margin. Succeeding pages will have a 25 mm top margin. (If you use the present document as a template, the format will be automatically adjusted).

Word styles:

- Title: Arial bold 16pt

- Author Arial 10pt italic
- Headline Arial 10pt
- Bodytext Arial 10pt
- Keywords Arial 10pt
- Caption Arial 9pt
- [3] Reference Arial 9pt

Text should be single-spaced in Arial 9 - 10 pt. Italic typefaces. We recommend using the defined style "SMSI Conferences Bodytext".

Pagination

Please do not put page numbers on the short paper.

Please Note

Your document is expected to have a total length of two (2) pages.

Company logos and emphasized company names may not be included in the short paper. By submitting your short paper you allow the organizer to publish your submission in the electronic conference proceedings and on the web. The papers will receive a Digital Object Identifier (DOI).

The Authors are responsible for obtaining any permissions which may be required from governments, industries and/or other organizations. No responsibility is accepted by the organizer.

Work that is not original or that has been presented in other international conferences or publications will not be accepted unless considerable progress has been achieved. Accepted short papers will be transferred to the proceedings directly! Authors do not need to submit separate papers for the proceedings. The short paper should be submitted in a PDF-version at <https://www.smsi-conference.com/smsi-2027-submission>.